Violence Has Entered Bitter Belgian Strike

By EDDY OILMORE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Belgium's bitter 11-day-old general strike, increasing in violence, brought its first death today. A striker was killed and a dozen persons were wounded in a melee of policemen and demonstrators in downtown Brussels.

Premier Gustav Eyskens charged Communist agitators are behind the nationwide strike.

There were two versions of the killing. The Socialists said a saboteur blew killed the striker when mounted police, answering a barrage of rocks, charged demonstrators in the heart of the city. The dead man was Francois Van Der Strappen, 30, a Frenchman living in Brussels.

Police said the striker was killed by an onlooker who fired into the demonstrators. They put the man under arrest. A government communiqué gave a similar version.

This was the most violent day of the strike against the Premier's economy program.

The Brussels clash occurred when strikers stoned headquarters of the Sabena Airlines. Most workers at Sabena had refused to join the Socialist-led strike.

Premier Eyskens emerged from a conference with his cabinet, told reporters:

"It is evident that the movement started from a group of Communist agitators and that it has now gotten beyond the Socialist leaders."

"I cannot believe that a great national party (the Socialists) is responsible for starting the action that has created such a crisis. It is high time that the Socialist leaders assume control."

Socialist leaders have denied that the Communists are running the movement. But at the same time they have denied that the Communists are running the movement. But at the same time they have denied that the Communists are running the movement.

Vandiver May Get Army Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Post said today Gov. S. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia is the leading candidate for secretary of the Army in the new Kennedy administration.

Another Southern governor—Burlington Ellington of Tennessee—and Thomas Watson, president of the International Business Machines Corp., are also under consideration for the job, the Post said.

U. S. Defense Worker Steal Secret Data

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP) — A former Defense Department employee has been charged with stealing secret documents.

Arthur Rogers Roddey, 38, of Falls Church, Va., told newsmen he took the papers "to take them to the National Security Council."

He said after his arrest Thursday, "I felt I was right and I still feel that way."

The council is the top echelon of the Department of Defense. Roddey was senior operations research adviser for the weapons system evaluation group of the Institute of Defense Analysis.

A newsman asked Roddey at his arraignment if he felt the documents contained information he thought the council should have but that it had not been given.

"I don't know what they knew, but I know what I knew and wanted them to know it," he replied. He conceded he did not take the documents to the council.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said the case does not involve espionage.

In Richmond, Va., however, U. S. Dist. Atty. Joseph S. Bannock, who authorized filing of the charges, commented, "I plan to convene the federal grand jury in Alexandria (Va.) within the next 10 days and I will ask the grand jury to indict Roddey on espionage charges."

He said some of the documents are "so highly classified that their mere existence, let alone their contents, are top secret."

The FBI announcement of Roddey's arrest said he made false statements about possession of documents when he left the job in August.

The FBI charged that Roddey took a top secret tape recorder and approximately 200 documents. Roddey said he had known since September that he was under investigation. He expressed relief that the charges were no more severe and "actually aren't as indicated to me previously."

He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Henry W. Kirkland. There were two counts of theft of government property and three counts of fraud.

Roddey worked in the Pentagon from 1958 until the staff was cut last August. He came here a week ago to spend Christmas at the home of his mother-in-law.

Speculation on Appointments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Albert M. Weinberg, winner of the 1960 atoms-for-peace award, and Dr. James Brown Fisk, president of Bell Telephone Laboratories, were reported today to be possibilities for appointment to the Atomic Energy Commission.

The Newark Evening News said Fisk is President-elect John F. Kennedy's choice for AEC chairman.

Congressional sources reported consideration is being given to appointment of Weinberg.

Weinberg, 45, is director of the atomic laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Tent City for Negroes Look Domestic

By JOHN CUNIFF

SOMERVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A Negro tent city, two weeks old today, is acquiring a domestic, lived-in and perhaps even permanent look. And racial tension in Fayette County is mounting because of it.

One of the tent city sharecropper residents, who say they were evicted by white farmers because they registered to vote, was shot and slightly wounded Thursday. Investigation indicated the bullet was fired from a passing car. It hit Early Williams, 25, in the arm as he slept in his tent.

Tent city is located about three miles south of this West Tennessee town, seat of Fayette County. Nine Negro families live in the tents now, including about 50 children.

The Negroes say they can't find jobs. Their spokesmen predict tent city's population may rise to 300 families when sharecropper leases expire the first of the year.

White residents admit there are almost no jobs for Negro sharecroppers in Fayette County now. Last year there were hundreds.

The white farmers say rapid farm mechanization is responsible, along with smaller cotton allotments. And they add that plenty of jobs are available elsewhere.

Dr. John W. Morris of Somerville, a landowner, said he received a telegram from Arkansas seeking 100 sharecropper families. He said it came from J. J. White, president of the Phillips County Farmers Association.

"They don't want to leave the county. They want to stay here and cast their votes and live and work together," said Negro Shep Towles, on whose 200-acre farm the tent city is growing.

John McFerrin, Negro grocer and president of the Fayette County Civic and Welfare League, who distributes food and the tents donated by parties he refuses to name, said the Negroes are prepared for a siege. There's been talk of stringing electricity to tent city.

The tents, mostly about 20 by 30 feet, are warm and some now have rugs covering the mud. Wood stoves provide heat, and kerosene lamps give a dim light.

Residents share one outhouse, erected Christmas Eve. Before then conditions were primitive.

Would Talk Under Right Conditions

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in his first talk with the British ambassador to Moscow, stressed his desire for a summit-level U. N. session on disarmament and a Berlin settlement in 1961 but gave no hint of readiness to make any concessions to the West.

Diplomatic authorities said this was the position the Soviet premier took in a 90-minute talk last Monday with Sir Frank Roberts, the new British envoy in Moscow.

British officials concede that the major Western allies will have to take a second look at the question of a U. N. summit session in the spring if Khrushchev announces he is going to lead the Soviet delegation in person again and a flock of government heads come trooping along, as they did in the fall.

But at present the Western powers see no point in trying to negotiate intricate disarmament questions amid a series of circus performances such as Khrushchev pulled off at the U. N. forum last September.

Watch Party Planned by First Baptists

The annual New Year's Eve Watch Party at the First Baptist Church will begin on Saturday, Dec. 31, at 8 p. m.

The party will begin with a holiday season turkey dinner. The turkey and dressing, coffee, hot chocolate and rolls will be furnished by the church. Salads and desserts will be pot-luck from those who attend.

The program for the evening will include movies of the past church activities. Films of different youth groups will be presented as well as the films presenting the construction of the present sanctuary. It is hoped that 1961 will see the congregation begin construction on the new education building.

A period of recreation in Fellowship Hall will be followed with a brief dedication service in the church sanctuary at 12 o'clock midnight.

Colony Board to Attend Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Children's Colony board voted Thursday to send representatives when they are invited to any meetings on a proposed $53 million state bond issue.

The representatives will be empowered only to report back to the board the gist of discussions at any such meetings.

The Children's Colony is one of ten institutions which would divide proceeds of the bond issue, suggested by presidents of the University of Arkansas and seven state-supported colleges. The State Hospital and the Children's Colony would share $8 million under the presidents' plan.

Officials of the State Hospital have announced they need $10 to $12 million for building.

The bond issue would be required by a proposed one cent a bottle tax on soft drinks. The 1961 legislature will decide whether to submit the bond question to a statewide vote.

Fulbright Has Plan to Keep Plant Open

PAIM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., told President-elect John F. Kennedy Thursday Reynolds Metals Co. wants the government to purchase the aluminum output of the firm's Arkadelphia, Ark., plant during 1961 to keep the plant in operation.

Fulbright and Kennedy spent the day playing golf and discussing various foreign and domestic affairs, including problems of Arkansas.

Fulbright said a principal problem in the state is the impending virtual shutdown of the Reynolds plant at Arkadelphia, resulting in 600 workers being laid off there next week.

The Arkansas senator, chairman of the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee, reported at a news conference following his meeting with the President-elect that he told Kennedy of the proposal made to him by Richard Reynolds, president of the aluminum firm.

The Reynolds plan, Fulbright said, would call for an agreement by the company to buy the aluminum back from the government during the next five years at a price no lower than the government paid for it in the first place.

Fulbright said Kennedy was much interested in the plan but made no commitment. He quoted Kennedy as saying he would like to discuss the matter further after he returns to Washington.

Another Arkansas topic discussed by the men was Fulbright's hopes for exporting more of the state's surplus farm commodities, especially poultry.

Fulbright said this country must increase its exports or face a possibility of a return to a higher U. S. tariff in a move to protect domestic producers against excessive imports.

On that matter, too, Fulbright said Kennedy was interested but suggested later discussion of the problem.

Kennedy said at a news conference he is seriously thinking of naming a roving ambassador abroad.

He was asked about reports that he would be busy to travel overseas, might send an emissary instead, and that the emissary might be Fulbright.

Fulbright spoke up and said he has participated in no such proposals and expects to be busy himself for the next month or so.

Youths Says Meet Not Red Inspired

CHICAGO (AP)—A youth conference in Chicago this weekend, labeled Communist by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, is not Communist-led or inspired, say spokesmen for the meeting.

Three of the young persons who are organizing the meeting said Thursday it will establish a "liberal progressive and socialist" youth organization.

Hoover, in Washington earlier this month said "the Communists are completing final arrangements for a conference to be held in Chicago," to formulate plans for a new national youth organization.

Miss Alya Buxbaum, 23, of Philadelphia, a member of the conference initiating committee, said: "J. Edgar Hoover is a paranoid. He sees enemies where there are no enemies."

A statement by Miss Buxbaum and two members of her committee, Daniel Rubin, 29, and Milton Anthopoulos, 23, both of New York, said: "We refuse to allow Mr. Hoover and people with such paranoia to inject communism as an issue into our conference."

Miss Buxbaum, who described herself as non-Communist, said she expected about 100 persons at the convention, which will be closed to the press. Rubin and Anthopoulos declined to say if they are Communists.

Final Rites for Hawthorne Infant

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hawthorne of Garland City died yesterday. Survivors include the paternal grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawthorne of Garland City and maternal grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tully Hair of Hope.

Graveside services were held at 2:45 a. m. Saturday taking the Senior Band to the Cotton Bowl parade which starts at 10 a. m. This parade will be on television. The Hope band is one of two high school bands from Arkansas to march in the parade.

Little League basketball play will be resumed Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Injunction Issued to Prevent Eviction of Negro Farm Tenants

$90 Million for Arkansas River Projects

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas River navigation program will get most of $90 million in new contracts to augment work already underway in the Arkansas, White and Red River Basins in 1960.

A year-end report issued Thursday by the U. S. Engineers said the Arkansas River program, making the river navigable along a 450-mile stretch from the Mississippi to Tulsa, is the most extensive water resources development program under way in the U. S. today.

Development of the three river basins is concerned with hydroelectric power, flood control, water conservation and recreation, besides navigation.

Major works scheduled for contract letting in 1961 include about $20 million for relocation of railroads, highways, municipal facilities and clearing the reservoir of Eufaula Dam on the Canadian River, a tributary of the Arkansas in Oklahoma, and another $20 million for similar purposes for the Keystone Dam on the Arkansas River, also in Oklahoma.

More than $12 million of new contracts is scheduled for the Dardanelle Dam on the Arkansas About $10.5 million is earmarked for bank stabilization on the Arkansas.

Major prospective contracts on White River projects in 1961 will include about $4.1 million at Greer Ferry, $3.5 million at Beaver Dam and $5 million at Bull Shoals.

Construction of the $55,700,000 Millwood Dam and Reservoir on the Red River near Ashdown is scheduled as a new start for 1961.

Spy Reportedly Near Death

NEW YORK (AP) — A judge said today that Dr. Robert Sobole, accused as a wartime spy for the Soviet Union, was "practically at the point of death" from a blood disease, and reduced his bail from $75,000 to $10,000.

The action was aimed at permitting Sobole to leave jail to receive outside medical treatment for his ailment—lymphatic leukemia, commonly known as cancer of the blood.

22 Horses Perish

MEMPHIS (AP) — Fire swept an East Memphis stable last night and 22 of 23 blooded horses perished in the smoke and flames.

The lone survivor was a 6-year-old mare in foal.

The loss was unofficially estimated at $20,000. Investigators said the fire appeared to have been caused by faulty wiring.

fective.

In Antwerp, strikers wrecked a post office truck and beat up two postal workers who had refused to join the strike.

About 4,000 strikers clashed with police in the southwest industrial city of Mons and there were other outbreaks of violence in and around Charleroi.

King Baudouin, who cut short his honeymoon to deal with the crisis, met with the presidents of the Senate and House of Representatives. He had conferred with Eyskens Thursday night.

The king also asked the leaders of Belgium's three largest political parties to come to see him.
They are: Theo Lefevre, Social Christian president; Roger Motz, Liberal Conservative chief; and Leo Collard, Socialist president.

Collard was reported to be in Charleroi to address a mass meeting of strikers.

Eyskens held his regular Cabinet meeting while the disorders were taking place.

A communique said the Cabinet had examined the situation throughout the nation and approved measures so far taken.

The Cabinet reaffirmed the government's position—that the House of Representatives would be allowed to debate the controversial austerity legislation to raise taxes and cut welfare spending to offset losses of Congo revenue.

After the meeting the premier told reporters: "The most important thing is to pass the legislation and give the country the new laws it needs."

The demonstrators in Brussels
stalked the streets and shouted
"We'll march on Parliament Tuesday" and "To the gallows with Eyskens." Parliament reconvened Tuesday to consider the austerity program.

The Socialists contend that the burden of the new austerity program will fall heaviest on the

Union Bosses
Deny Funs
Were Misused

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Earl and Ermon Griffin of El Dorado have invited a Justice Department probe of Local 706 of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Union and said charges that they misused union funds are completely false.

In Little Rock to talk with the local's attorney, the Griffins issued a 30-page statement denying charges made public Thursday by Senate investigators, who said $120,581 in union dues and assessments had been misplaced.

"We invite and request the Justice Department," the statement read, "to investigate these false and inaccurate allegations."

It added a demand that if there is any truth in the charges, the Griffins immediately be indicated and placed on trial.

The brothers lashed at Senate investigator Lavern J. Duffy, who testified to the money shortage before the Senate Rackets Committee, headed by Sen. John Mc-Clellan of Arkansas.

The Griffins said they regard Duffy as an ambitious young man who is trying to smear them.

The local is run by Earl Griffin, an international organizer for the union, who denied in an earlier committee hearing there was any shortage, and his brother.

Duffy produced evidence indicating that thousands of dollars of the local's funds had been used since 1954 to purchase such items as a 14 foot boat and outboard motor, two airplanes, fishing and hunting gear, and roses for the Earl Griffins' wives.

Earl Griffin defended the purchase as proper. He said the fishing gear was kept at his private camp for the use of employers and unionists.

At closed door hearings last March 22 and Aug. 16-17, Duffy testified he found a shortage in a fund the local raised by assessing workers $3.50 a week while workers.

The economic battle spawned a new outbreak of the conflicts between the Catholics and Socialists, and between the French-speaking Wallonian south and Flemish north, that often have divided Belgium.

The day's first violence came in the Charleroi region, a Socialist stronghold in the south. Cobblestones were torn from the streets and thrown in Couillet, Marcinelle, Gilly, Marchienne-au-Pont and Jumet.

Kennedy Selects
Another Teacher

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today President-elect John F. Kennedy has chosen McGeorge Bundy, a Harvard dean and a Republican, to be his special assistant for national security affairs.

Bundy, 41, is dean of the faculty of arts and sciences at Harvard.

Camden Housing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Housing Administration has approved a contract with the Camden, Ark., Public Housing authority for construction of 60 low-rent houses costing a total of $1,191, 926.

The PHA will provide a loan of up to 90 per cent of the total cost, to be repaid over a long term by the local authority. PHA also will provide an annual grant for operation of the project.

The Griffins said some of their troubles stemmed from a small minority in the local that is disgruntled because it can't get favored treatment.

The brothers called "wholly without foundation" a statement by Duffy that the local was run by coercion, intimidation and reprisals.

Adopted Daughter Ungrateful—Who's to Blame?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I am 57 and work on the relief shift nights as a nurse's aide. I have been on the job seven years and love it. Twenty years ago I adopted a baby, gave her a good home and wonderful education. She was graduated from high school the first of June and married the 12th. I gave her a beautiful church wedding. Her husband's parents have been coming here and bringing the baby (whom I love dearly). I cook, clean and wash up after them.

Last week my daughter wrote she was coming home but the TV wasn't to be played loud and we weren't to say anything when she beat the baby, nor give it anything to eat. So I just wrote and told her not to come. Now she is angry. Did I do right? —Mrs. G.

Dear Mrs. G.: If your daughter arbitrarily lays down the law, you are certainly justified in taking the stand you did. However, in the last analysis, you are more responsible than she for her egocentric actions. They reveal lack of early discipline. You evidently Ridgill, having arrived Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindholm of Eads, Colo., spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fountain.

The Bill Morton family of Ft. Smith are visiting Mrs. Joe Morton, Miss Hazel Abram, and Miss Bea Abram.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver have returned from a Christmas visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nations and Jay in Kingsport, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Holmes of Wewaka, Okla., visited Thursday with the T. R. Gibsons in Patmos and Mrs. F. R. Hamilton in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Russell, Jr., and Mrs. and Mrs. Hody Butler, Jr., and Tada have returned to Dallas, Tex., after spending Christmas here with relatives.

Miss Josie Anderson has returned home to Little Rock, accompanying Mrs. Glen Overturf and children there on Thursday.

After spending Christmas with Mrs. R. L. Hendrix, Jack and Jimmy Hendrix of New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minard of Shreveport, La., have returned home.

Mrs. D. H. Lipscomb and Mrs. Maude Haynes spent Christmas in Ogden with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Garrison and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Coiter Lipscomb of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Crow spent Christmas with the H. L. Martins in Lufkin, Tex.

gave this girl everything — except a firm upbringing. Pampering is no kindness either to the child or those with whom fate brings it in contact. Have a frank talk with her before it's too late. Make it your first New Year's resolution!

Dear Helen:

I am 13 and saving very hard for a horse. My parents will let me have one but think I should buy it myself.

How can I make the money to do this? I'm willing to work hard to board and feed this horse but, like I say, I have no idea how to earn the money. —Desperate

Dear Desperate: Think this problem of yours through. What kind of a horse do you want? Where will you stable it and — most important of all, can you ride?

Before you act, you must have a plan. Study the different breeds. Once you decide which you prefer, ask your parents to take you to the breeding farms or dealers specializing in your favorites. Along the way, you're sure to find someone who will teach you to ride professionally, in exchange for exercising their horses. This has happened.

Master the fine art of equestrianism, for it is an art, so that you can show these horses in the ring and you'll soon have the money to buy the horse of your dreams. Best of all, you'll know your subject!

Dear Helen:

I am 17, have been married two years and have two darling babies. My husband is in his late twenties. I love him very much but I'm not sure what his feelings are for me.

He never kisses me, hasn't said, "I love you," for over a year and when I do ask him if he loves me, says, "I don't know."

I've done my best to be a good wife, mother and housekeeper. I've cried until there are no tears left. I miss affection terribly. My husband seems to have no consideration whatsoever for me. An answer in your column would be sincerely appreciated. —Miserable

Poor, dear Little Miserable: This iceberg of yours doesn't know a good wife when he gets one. Force yourself to play it cool too. Quit asking him if he loves you. Stop being an open book. Keep him guessing. Even if marriage is the end of the chase, make like it's just the beginning.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address hear care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Turn Your Spare Time Into Cash."

Officials Not Consulted on Bond Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Spokesmen for the State Hospital and the Arkansas Children's Colony say officials of their institutions were not consulted in the planning of a proposed $53 million bond issue.

Funds from the bond issue, proposed by presidents of the University of Arkansas and seven state-supported colleges, would be used for construction at the educational institutions, the State Hospital and the Children's Colony.

Dr. Granville Jones, superintendent of the State Hospital, said Wednesday that hospital authorities were not brought into the bond matter until the presidents had already decided to ask for the huge issue.

Ruth Tudor, a member of the Children's Colony board, said the board had not been in on meetings of the presidents at which the bond proposal was devised.

Storm Whaley, vice president of the university, said the college group was "more or less operating on its own in working up the bond plan. They discovered that some of the other state agencies were in the same fix and decided the needs should be consolidated."

Under the plan evolved by the presidents, the educational institutions could divide $42 million and the State Hospital and the Children's Colony would divide $11 million. The remaining $3 million would be held in reserve. The presidents proposed to retire the bonds with a one cent a bottle tax on soft drinks. Bottlers have opposed the proposal.

The 1961 Legislature will decide if the bond proposal to a vote, whether to authorize submission Arkansas law requires that bond issues be passed on in an election.

Blacklisted Group Sues Film Studios

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A dozen movie writers and actors, three of them Academy Award winners, are suing major studios for $7.5 million in damages and demanding abolition of an alleged political blacklist in Hollywood.

Four of the plaintiffs were members of the famed "unfriendly 10," who were convicted of contempt of Congress and sent to jail in 1947 after refusing to say whether they had ever been Communists.

The suit, directed against eight studios, was to be filed today in U.S. District Court at Washington, D.C.

The plaintiffs, who contend they were deprived of work in Hollywood because they were on the alleged blacklist, are writers Nedrick Young, Albert Maltz, John Howard Lawson, Herbert Biberman, Lester Cole, Robert L. Richards, Frederick I. Rinaldo and Philip Stevenson, and performers Gale Sondergaard, Alvin Hammer, Mary Virginia Farmer and Shimen Ruskina.

Maltz, Young and Miss Sondergaard are Oscar winners. Maltz, Lawson, Biberman and Cole were members of the "unfriendly 10."

A.L. Wirin, one of the plaintiffs' attorneys, said the suit charges conspiracy and is being filed under antitrust laws.

Wirin, associated with the American Civil Liberties Union, said this is the first time antitrust laws have been used "to secure enforcement of civil rights."

"The Sherman Anti-Trust Act makes it unlawful for persons to agree not to employ any person or group of persons," he added. "In this case, the complaint alleges there was an agreement by all those named as defendants not to employ persons who invoked the Fifth Amendment before a congressional committee or who Hollywood studios have denied the existence of a blacklist, but Wirin said such a list has been used since 1947 and now contains more than 200 names. He said the suit would detail how the alleged blacklist has been employed.

Defendant studios are Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Columbia, Paramount, 20th Century-Fox, Warner Brothers, Universal - International, Walt Disney Productions and Allied Artists. Also named are the Motion Picture Association of America and the Association of Motion Picture Producers.

Bowl Business Opens Tonight, Ends Jan. 2

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New Years weekend college football bowl firing opens tonight in the Tangerine Bowl game at Orlando, Fla., and winds up Monday with the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

An estimated 500,000-plus fans will turn out for a dozen assorted bowl and all-star games.

Heading the list as usual is the oldest of them all, the Rose Bowl clash, this time between Minnesota (8-1) of the Big Ten and Washington (9-1) of the Big Five. Minnesota ended the season as the nation's No. 1 team in the annual AP poll and is a 7-point favorite to clip Washington, rated No. 6.

A crowd of 103,000 is expected for the Pasadena battle, largest of the bowl turnouts. The game is to be televised (NBC) starting at 3 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. Tonight's Tangerine Bowl will be the Citadel (7-2-1) against Tennessee Tech (4-2-1), with 11,000 fans expected.

In addition to the Rose Bowl, Monday's other attractions are

College Cage Ranks May Be Shook Up

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The national rankings of college basketball teams likely will be all shook up as a result of holiday week tournament play, but so far top-rated Ohio State, St. Bonaventure and Duke have escaped without anything worse than minor tremors.

The shook-up state is nothing

the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, the Orange at Miami, and the Cotton at Dallas.

Mississippi, No. 2, tackles Rice in the Sugar Bowl; Navy, No. 4, opposes Missouri, No. 5, in the Orange Bowl; and Arkansas, No. 7, meets Duke, No. 10 in the Cotton Bowl.

The Sugar Bowl crowd is expected to hit 81,000, with Mississippi favored by 10 points over Rice (7-3). Missouri (9-1) is 6 1/2 over Navy (9-1) at Miami, where a crowd of 76,000, including President-elect John F. Kennedy, is forecast. The Cotton Bowl turnout is estimated at 65,000, and Arkansas (8-2) is a 7-point choice over Duke (7-3).

That leaves seven other bowls for Saturday, headed by the Gator at Jacksonville, Fla., between Baylor (8-2) and Florida (8-2); and the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco. Florida and Baylor are "pick em" while East rates a 5-point edge over West.

The Gator Bowl crowd is estimated to be 50,000 with television (CBS) at 2:15 p. m. EST. A turnout of 60,000 is looked for at San Francisco, with television (NBC) at 4:50 p. m.

The other Saturday contests:

Utah State (9-1) vs. New Mexico State (10-0) in the El Paso (Tex.) Sun Bowl, 15,000; Blue-Gray College Stars at Montgomery, Ala., 20,000, television (NBC) 2 p. m.; National All-Stars vs. Southwest All-Stars, Copper Bowl, Tempe, Ariz., 23,000; Texas A&I (7-1-1) vs. Arkansas Tech (10-0), Great Southwest Bowl, Grand Prairie, Tex., 9,000; and Prairie View Bowl, Houston, Arkansas A. M. & N. (6-4) vs. Prairie View (9-1), 10,000.

new in basketball. But look what happened during the dizzy whirl of tournament competition last night.

Indiana, ranked No. 4 in the latest national listings by The Associated Press board of experts; St. Johns (NY), the No. 7 team, and North Carolina State, No. 10, were among the losers, two of them in real upsets.

Kansas State, which missed a top 10 rating by a couple of notches, emerged as one of the big winners and both Ohio State and St. Bonaventure had some uncertain moments before they came through to the finals of the ECAC Holiday Classic in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Tournament competition ran the gamut from such glamor events as the Holiday Classic, the long-established All College Tournament at Oklahoma City, the Dixie Classic and the Sugar and Gator Bowl tournaments to the Tall Corn and Paul Bunyan tournaments and beyond.

Briefly, heres how the more important ones shaped up:

Champions: Big Eight tournament—Kansas State; Hurricane Classic—Miami (Fla.).

Finalists: ECAC Holiday—Ohio State vs. St. Bonaventure; All College—Baylor vs. Wichita; Sugar Bowl—West Virginia vs. Memphis State; Gator Bowl—Navy vs. Georgia Tech; Gulf South Classic—Mississippi vs. South Carolina; Richmond Invitation—Richmond vs. Willia and Mary; Los Angeles Classic—UCLA vs. Iowa; Far West Classic—Seattle vs. Oregon State; WCAC at San Francisco—St. Marys (Calif.) vs. San Francisco.

First round winners: Dixie Classic—Duke, North Carolina, Marquette and Villanova.

It was 69-66 in overtime as K-State twice clicked on crucial free throws then stalled successfully. Iowa State took third place with a 67-55 victory over Oklahoma.

Miami, the home team, won its tournament by whipping Holy Cross handily 77-71. Tennessee beat Army 88-71 for third.

Ohio State, with its superb star, Jerry Lucas, slightly under the weather, trailed previously unbeaten St. Johns by 13 points at one stage, but the Bucks balance and shooting skill finally paid off with a 70-65 victory. Unbeaten St. Bonaventure, 15 points ahead in the middle of the second half, barely lasted to beat Utah 89-88.

Indiana's second defeat of the still young season came at the hands of UCLA, 94-72, in the semifinals of the Los Angeles Classic. Iowa turned back Southern California 70-62 in the other semifinal game.

In semifinal games in the Far West Classic in Portland, Ore., Oregon State defeated Idaho 63-53 after Seattle outlasted Arizona State 87-86.

Tenth-ranked North Carolina State succumbed to Villanova 72-63 in the Dixie Classic.

Equally surprising in another way, Baylor outlasted New York University 58-50 in a defensive struggle to reach the final. They'll meet Wichita 73-63 winner over defending champion Utah State.

Navy's Allen Hughes paced the midshipmen to a 69-62 overtime victory over Florida in the Gator Bowl. Favored Georgia Tech out-finished Georgia to win the other game 54-51.

Bream fair to good on crickets and worms. Crappie fair on minnows and artificial lures. Lake Catherine: Three and one-half feet low. Bass fair on artificial bait.

Grid Playoff Considered by Coaches

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas High School Coaches Association has drawn up three proposals for reviving prep football playoffs, including one which would add five teams to the Big Nine Conference and break it into two divisions.

The proposals have been submitted to member schools of the Arkansas Athletic Association.

Plan A would set up playoffs under present district alignments. Plan B would make minor districting adjustments to balance the districts. Plan C would effect a major redistricting and create a 14-team tour enrollment conference.

Plan C calls for strict classification by enrollment. Schools with under 200 students would be Class B, 200-400 Class A, 400-700 Class AA and those over 700 Class AAA. Enrollment would be figured on the top four grades.

Fayetteville, Jacksonville, Benton, Springdale and Jonesboro would qualify for the Big Nine under this plan. Fayetteville and Springdale would join Little Rock Central, North Little Rock, Port Smith, Hot Springs and Texarkana in one division while Jacksonville, Benton and Jonesboro would be with Little Rock Hall, Blytheville, Pine Bluff and El Dorado in the other.

The Class AA regions would look like this:

Region One: Harrison, Rogers, Subiaco, Van Buren, Mena, Bentonville, St. Anne's.

Region Two: Forrest City, Newport, Paragould, West Memphis, Helena, Stuttgart.

Region Three: Little Rock Catholic, Conway, Mabelvale, Morrilton, Russellville, Searcy, Batesville and Sylvan Hills.

Region Four: Crossett, Hope, Magnolia, Camden, Sheridan and Arkadelphia.

Hogs, Fairview, Amity Advance to Semifinals

By Vince Foster
Hope Star Sports Writer

Texarkana, Amity and Fairview of Camden advanced to the semifinals in the Hope Holiday Tournament last night. Texarkana slipped past Magnolia 64-46. Fairview edged out DeQueen in a thrilling overtime and Amity took Smackover 56-49.

The Razorbacks jumped to a 16-9 lead in the first quarter, but Magnolia narrowed the margin to 32-27 at the half. Magnolia came within three points in the final period, but a Texarkana freeze and a late rally provided the margin for the Hogs. Watts was high man for the Razorbacks with 20 and Rankin led the Panthers with 15.

Fairview led 16-9, 27-19 and 37-35 at the end of the first three quarters respectively, but DeQueen pulled 5 points out from time running out in the final quarter. Then Fairview went to work, and with only seconds to spare tied the game up, sending it into an overtime. The overtime period was almost all Fairview as they scored 6 points to DeQueen's 1. Petet was high for DeQueen with 21 and Churchill, the man Hope has to stop in this afternoon's game, scored 24 points for Fairview.

Amity tied Smackover 12-12 in the first quarter and then pulled out to lead 30-26 at halftime. Amity plays fast basketball with a lot of fast breaks and the big Smackover players couldn't keep up with them. Taylor was high for Amity with 20, and Burnett, Burrison and Agee led the Bucks with 12 points each.

This afternoon in semi-final play the Ashdown girls take on Stamps at 2 p.m. The Bobcats face Fairview at 3:30. Then tonight the Texarkana Ladies meet Lewisville at 7 p.m. and Texarkana boys play Amity at 8:30.

Porks Hold 'Hardest' Workout

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks underwent what Coach Frank Broyles termed their hardest workout of the season Thursday. But their opponents in the Cotton Bowl Monday, Duke's Blue Devils, worked out lightly and Coach Bill Murray said, "I think we have a good chance to beat them."

The Duke squad, 55 strong, arrived in Dallas last night from its San Antonio training camp. Arkansas was due in today from its Houston camp.

Broyles said Thursday it appears that tackle Paul Henderson and halfback Jarrell Williams, injured in bowl practice, will be able to play in the New Year's classic.

Henderson injured an ankle in Tuesday's practice, missed Wednesday's workout, and was reported improved Thursday Williams received a groin injury in the first Houston workout for the Porks on Monday, but was back in action Thursday.

Both are key men in the Razorback attack.

The Hogs drilled in the mud of the Rice practice field for an hour and 35 minutes Thursday. And the kickoff and punting units had been on the field for 20 minutes before the full-scale workout began.

"We're a little behind on our kicking game," Broyles said "but not enough to really worry about. We needed the long work today even in the rain. The weather has cut us short the last two afternoons."

Duke is scheduled to practice today and Saturday at the Cobb High School Stadium but Murray said he had not decided whether there would be a workout Sunday. The Razorbacks will work out at the Southern Methodist University

Porks Gear for Fireworks Offensively

DALLAS (AP)—Producers of only two touchdowns in three previous post-season appearances in Dallas, the Arkansas Razorbacks return next Monday geared for offensive fireworks befitting a Cotton Bowl tradition.

Although highly respected for its defense—only half of its 10 190 opponents crossed the Arkansas goal line—Frank Broyles' team will be offensive-minded when it lines up against Duke. The latter, of course, put emphasis on attack, all of which could add up to another scoring bee.

Arkansas' first Cotton Bowl appearance ended in a scoreless tie with Louisiana State in 1947. Eight years later the Razorbacks got only a single touchdown and bowed to Georgia Tech 14-6.

On each of those occasions the top performers for Arkansas were rugged defenders, not scoring threats like halfback Lance Alworth, who will lead the attack next Monday.

Arkansas' first post-season trip to Dallas was the Dixie Classic in 1934. That game, forerunner of the Cotton Bowl, ended in a 7-7 tie with Centenary.

Although Alworth rates as the chief Razorback threat, he is far from the only one. Duke threw the ball much more often than Arkansas in the regular season (107 of 175 as compared to 53 of 121), but quarterback George McKinney and Billy Moore achieved exceptional success with their efforts, passing for 11 touchdowns. Duke scored only three through the air.

End Jimmy Collier, who caught passes to set the scene for victories over Texas and Rice, and Alworth were the favorite targets. Five other Razorbacks caught touchdown passes, however.

Alworth, in addition to nabbing 12 passes for 243 yards, was the team's leading ball-carrier with 375 yards.

The fact that Arkansas will be thinking offense is reflected in the recent remark of Broyles in which he indicated the two Cotton Bowl principals would call an ag-stadium.

Murray said his squad's Thursday workout was excellent. He said the San Antonio training had been most satisfactory and "we accomplished what we set out to do."

He scoffed at reports that Duke's line would outweigh Arkansas by 24 pounds to the man. He said he didn't think the correct weights had been posted for Arkansas and that the margin would not be more than 10 to 12 pounds over Arkansas.

Plant Contracted

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Contracts for a boiler and condenser for the co-op Thomas B. Fitzhugh steam generating plant to be built near Ozark were awarded Wednesday.

The Arkansas State Electric Co-operative Board of Directors awarded the boiler contract to Babcock and Wilcox of New York City. The Elliott Co. of St. Louis received the contract for the condenser.

The amounts of the contracts, which were negotiated rather than bid for, were not announced. The board discussed possible site locations but would not disclose where they were.

gregate of 40 passes. Duke averaged half that many during the regular season.

Duke generated more offense than Arkansas, averaging 28 yards per game to 24 and is determined to bounce back after hitting a late-season slump.

Duke has a good record of offensive brilliance in its last three bowl games. Against Oklahoma in the 1958 Orange Bowl, the Blue Devils participated in one of the highest-scoring games in bowl history—9 points combined. And back in 1945 Duke outscored Alabama 29-26 in the Sugar Bowl.

Duke which has been training at San Antonio, files in at 7:15 p.m. today. Arkansas, working at Houston, arrives Friday morning at 10:31.

Glamour Is a Lonesome Thing—(2)

Married happiness has eluded Marilyn. Her first marriage, at 16, was to James Dougherty, above. It lasted four years. During that time she became a photographer's model. In '46, a screen test led her to change her name, Norma Jean Baker, to "Marilyn Monroe." A part in "The Asphalt Jungle" (1936) touched off rocket to stardom.

Marilyn met Yankee baseball great, Joe DiMaggio, in 1952. Marriage did not come until 1954. Perhaps Marilyn feared his fame and her movie career might not click. If so, she was right.

Nine months after her marriage to Joe DiMaggio, newsmen crowded close in Beverly Hills, Calif., to hear Marilyn say that it was over. Her explanation: "We had nothing to say to each other."

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Noel M. Loomis

THE STORY: During the night outlaws attack the Lewis Ranch in an effort to force her off the land, Bart Wagner and Catherine Lewis defend the place against the attack.

Chapter XVI

He went to the back door and opened it cautiously, in time to see a yellow flicker of light in the direction of the shed. "They're burning the rest of it!" he said, and took two big steps back for the rifle. He sighted along it and took one shot. A horse squealed and rocketed into the night, bucking and trumpeting. In a moment the shed was blazing high. The roof was sod, but the rafters and supports were wood and they went up like dry powder. For a few moments the entire ranch yard was lighted up like day.

At the height of the fire he felt again the beating of hooves, and ran to the window. As they went by, he took three pistol shots, and they answered wildly, not aiming at anything. A shot from the rifle sounded at the other window.

He stood for a while, waiting. "I think they've gone for the night," he said. "I hope so," Catherine said fervently.

At daylight he saw there was nothing left of the shed but charred timbers and smoldering bales of hay. "One thing is sure," he said. "These gents mean business."

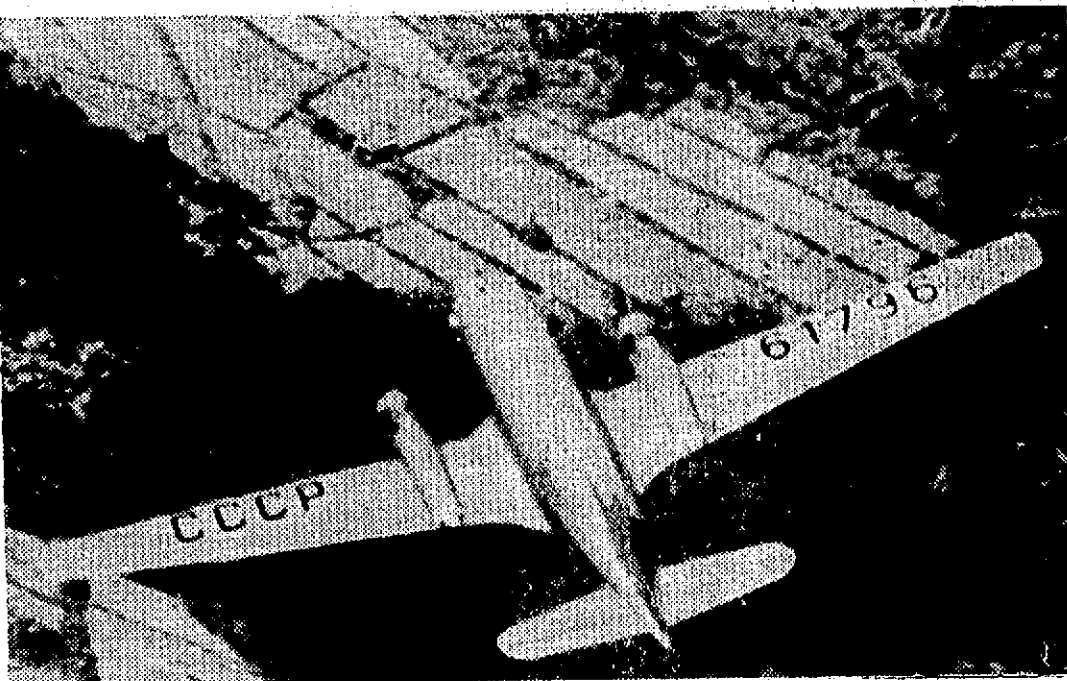

He thought she looked pretty pale. "Isn't there any way to stop them?" she asked, setting four big pancakes in front of him.

"Nothing but the courts," he said, reaching for the sorghum. "Mr. Goodnight didn't think the outlaws would allow—"

"Not willingly," he said with a smile.

"It sounds as if you have an idea."

"I have a real good idea." He stood up. "The outlaws mean business, and it's natural they should. They've had easy pickin's in the Panhandle for a long time. If they get run out of here, there's only Indian Territory, and Judge Parker at Fort Smith is making the Territory pretty warm for them. So they'll be prepared — and I figure we can be prepared too."

She looked at him gratefully. "I'm glad to hear you say that, Bart. Where are you going now?" she asked.

"Court opens a week from Monday," he said, "and I think we can get prepared for it just as well as Xenophon Jones and Piggy Benson."

"You'll be gone today?" "All day," he said. "You're sure you mean to come back?"

Suddenly afraid of having won her feeling so completely, he said roughly, "Catherine, don't forget I'm a killer."

It made no impression on her. "I don't care. Anyway, I know about it. Ben told me."

He stared at her. "What did he tell you?"

"He said he saw a man named Wagner shoot three men in El Paso. Ben said it was murder — sheer murder — and he said he tried to help them."

"How did he help?" "She said slowly, reluctantly but honestly, as if she was resigned to the worst. "Something with a mirror — in somebody's eyes."

He stared at her. "The four of them pulled down on me in front of the Elephant Saloon, as I told you — and then — that old man was Ben?" he asked, incredulous.

She watched his face fearfully. "That's what he said, Bart. He had gone to El Paso for salt, and he met the Yagers and they

Negro Shot in Tennessee Race Strife

SOMERVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A bullet, apparently fired from a passing car, wounded a Negro today in a tent city being set up for evicted sharecroppers in this racially tense county.

The bullet, caliber undetermined, ripped through a tent, part of a mattress and hit Early B. Williams just below the elbow of his right arm as he slept.

"They told me a car passed, slowed down and somebody shot," said Sheriff C. E. Patten. "Right now that's just about all I know about it."

Williams, 25, was treated at a hospital in Memphis, 60 miles west of here. His wife and four children were in the tent with him when the shooting took place.

The shot brought men out from all 11 tents, many of them armed with rifles or shotguns. Plans were drawn for a 24-hour guard at the tent grounds, located on a Negro leader's farm, beside a state highway.

"We have always said there would be no violence on our part but that our people stand ready to defend themselves if necessary," said Allen Yancey Jr., president of the Fayette County Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

It was the first incidence of violence in the controversy that has gripped this cotton growing area the way he told it, I thought Bart Wagner must have been a very brave man, and I asked him about it. Then when he found out what I thought, he set to work to tear you down again."

He took a deep breath. "All right, Catherine, I'll be back. I don't know what I'll do when I come back, but I'll be around until Monday anyway."

She watched his eyes, and perhaps she had some knowledge of the thoughts going through his mind, for finally she said apologetically, "One of us killed a man last night. He's out there in the yard."

Bart sighed. "I must have gotten him when he passed the window."

He got a shovel and went around to the front with her. The man in the straw hat was flat on his face, one arm flung out, the other doubled under him as if he had rolled. A bullet had caught him in the left side just under the heart, and he had not lived very long after falling.

since a drive opened to register Negro voters last year. Negro leaders say 300 families are being evicted because they registered to vote. White leaders say the evictions, most of them effective Jan. 1, are the natural result of farm mechanization.

John McFerrin, head of the Fayette County Civic and Welfare League, started the tent city to offer housing to any evicted families. He said most of the 300 families are expected to be living in tents within weeks.

The Justice Department has filed a suit against 81 residents and a bank, charging conspiracy to deprive Negroes of the right to vote. A similar suit was filed against more than 70 residents of adjoining Haywood County. A district federal judge in Memphis has denied a government petition for a temporary injunction to bar eviction of Negro tenants until trial is held. An appeal was taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

The Burton Saunders Memorial Museum at Berryville has a Colt-Walker 1847 model revolver valued at more than $3,500.

Old Mother Earth Slims Waistline

NEW YORK (AP) - Mother earth is slimming down that slight bulge around her waistline - but not so you'd notice. It's going to take her some 100 million years.

And the old girl is - almost imperceptibly - slowing up. But her body is a lot stronger than the doctors thought it was before. These are some of the indications from satellite studies reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science meeting by Dr. Gordon J. F. MacDonald of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

First, the satellite studies showed that earth's shape was more full around the middle than had been supposed. Scientists were able to determine the earth's shape from the unusual action of man-made satellites circling the earth. One Vanguard satellite's orbit was found to vary by as much as a half a mile a day, in obedience to the earth's gravity.

The earth has had its midriff bulge for the past 100 million years, Dr. MacDonald said. But slowly the earth is reducing the speed with which it turns on its axis - and this slowing is adding 1/1000th of a second to each day each century. In 100 million years the total of these fractions of a second will come to a 15-minute longer day.

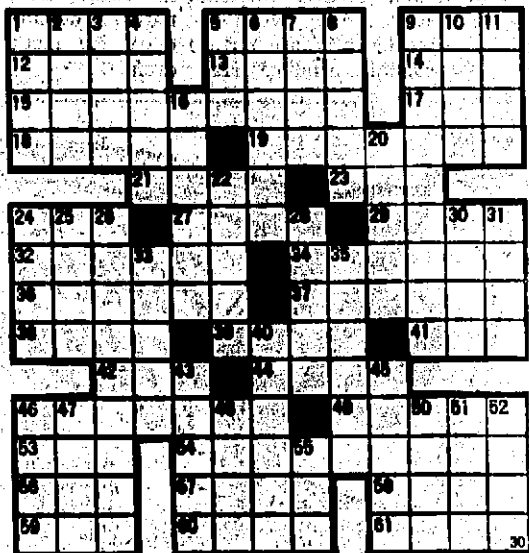

This reduced spin will also influence the earth's shape and, probably, slowly the earth's crust will adjust to the slower speed and the bulge will gradually disappear. It isn't known whether the earth's crust can accommodate the slowly lessening bulge without cracking, but Dr.

Warns GOPs to Watch Conferences

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., said today if John F. Kennedy uses White House news conferences for "propaganda" purposes, Republicans may ask for equal air time.

Kuchel, the assistant Senate Republican leader, said in an interview that Kennedy's plans to hold evening news conferences on live television indicate the Democrats may be planning "drastic shows."

"If presidential news conferences are going to be used for propaganda purposes, then we Republicans will have to consider asking for equal time," Kuchel said.

Equal time provisions of the law would not cover Kennedy until such a time as he might announce he is a candidate for re-election.

Kuchel said he had in mind speculative reports that Kennedy might call a prime hour television conference to discuss a single subject—possibly some controversial matter before Congress—and limit reporters' questions to that subject.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said at Palm Beach Tuesday that the new administration will ask the networks from time to time to carry evening presidential news conferences live but the networks will be free to carry any or all other presidential meetings with reporters on a live basis.

Aside from possible Republican complaints, Kennedy apparently is willing to risk in live television the kind of presidential boo-boos his predecessors didn't want to take a chance on.

Kennedy's decision means that any possible ill-chosen word or phrase as well as national repercussions will be on the record instantly.

This will alter the present system under which the president cannot be quoted directly by reporters until a checked transcript of his remarks becomes available.

Freedom Crusade

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — Curtis Walker of Searcy has been selected as state chairman of the 1961 Crusade for Freedom campaign in Arkansas.

He succeeds Rollo Asmussen, formerly of Searcy, who served as state chairman this year.

Walker, personnel manager of Remington Rand's Searcy plant, said that chairmen for the state's congressional districts would be named after Jan. 1.

Crusade for Freedom finances Radio Free Europe.

The Arkansas goal for 1961 is $12,000.

BIG PUSH IS ON—Workmen join a house—divided by pushing its two sections together in New York. The house is delivered to the site by truck. Three-bedroom house comes in two complete sections. ## Seer Sees Baby for Princess LONDON (AP)—A seer who has come up with some pretty accurate forecasts in the past predicted today Princess Margaret will have a baby in 1961.

"And all the celestial indications point to a boy," he said. The forecast, from astrologer Francesco Waldner, was published in the magazine "Woman's Mirror."

A year ago Waldner predicted that Princess Margaret would marry in 1960. She did.

Detroit Presbytery Favors Merger

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit presbytery, with 110 United Presbyterian churches, voted 216 to 4 Wednesday night in favor of a proposed merger of Presbyterian, Methodist, United Church of Christ and Episcopal churches. The Detroit presbytery is one of the five largest of the country's 400 presbyteries. Merger was approved in a resolution in the form of an "over-throw" to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian Church which meets in Buffalo, N.Y., next May.

Rules Crosby Is Father of Child

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bing Crosby's son Dennis has been declared the father of a girl born out of wedlock three years ago to a Hollywood divorcee.

"Well, I expected it," said the son of the famous singer after the 9-3 verdict was returned Wednesday in Superior Court.

"We've won, honey," rejoiced Marilyn Miller Scott, picking up her daughter, Denise, the girl whose paternity was at issue.

"We've won, we've won," responded Denise, who was in the courtroom throughout the week-long trial.

Seven women and two men on the jury, composed entirely of parents, found that the prematurely bald Crosby fathered the girl at Mrs. Scott's apartment in February of 1957. Since this was a civil and not a criminal action, a unanimous verdict was not required.

Korean Elections

SEOUL (AP) — Major gains were scored in South Korean local elections Tuesday by independents, many of them members of ousted President Syngman Rhee's discredited Liberal party.

Nine independent candidates were elected mayor. Premier John Chang's Democratic party elected 12 candidates, and the New Democratic party won with 5.

He later agreed to a private arrangement under which he would pay her $300 a month. When she brought suit, he was ordered to pay $350 monthly pending trial.

Gas Kills Three

LONDON (AP) — Three workmen were killed by gas in the reptile house at the Regents Park zoo today. A fourth man was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

The men were deepening a well beneath the reptile house when they apparently bored into an underground pocket containing a natural deposit of noxious gas.

The Arkansas Children's Colony at Conway is recognized as the nation's outstanding training facility for mentally retarded children.

Kennedy Lists Another Key Appointment

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy filled a key Treasury Department today, then started a wide-ranging discussion of international and domestic problems with Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark.

Kennedy chose Robert V. Roosa, New York banker, to be undersecretary for monetary affairs.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Palm Beach, Fla. (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy takes part today in a global review of American foreign policy. He also picked a New York banker, Robert V. Roosa, to be undersecretary of the Treasury for monetary affairs.

And Kennedy has chosen Archibald Cox, Harvard law professor and a campaign aide, for the job of solicitor general of the United States — the government's chief trial lawyer.

For a far-ranging look at the uneasy international situation Kennedy arranged a luncheon meeting and afternoon conference with Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Kennedy and Fulbright may hold a news conference late in the day after their talks at the president-elect's seashore home.

Kennedy considered the appointment of Fulbright as secretary of state, but earlier this month passed him over in favor of Dean Rusk, head of the Rockefeller Foundation.

Roosa, 42, who says he's an independent in politics, will be the Treasury department's No. 3 official as undersecretary for monetary affairs. He now is vice president of the New York Federal Reserve Bank in charge of research.

Kennedy chose Roosa after consultation with the secretary of the Treasury-designate, Douglas Dillon, who is undersecretary of state in the outgoing Eisenhower administration.

The No. 2 command post in the Treasury, another undersecretary is yet to be filled.

As in the case of Cox for solicitor general, Kennedy—a Harvard graduate himself — once more picked a man with Harvard background in selecting Roosa.

Roosa won his bachelor's degree in economics at the University of Michigan, and then served as a tutor and teaching fellow at Harvard University and as an instructor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology while earning a master's and doctor of philosophy degrees.

As undersecretary for monetary affairs, Roosa will be directly re-
